Announcements.

We are authorized to announce J. W. PERRY,
as a candidate for the Legislature, to represent the counties of Lawrence and Boyd, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce
J. S. THOMPSON, as a candidate for Representative in the Legislature, from the district composed of Lawrence and Boyd counties, subject to the action of the Republican party.

One dollar subscribed to the Kentucky Exhibit Association fund now will be worth two later in the year. If you are going to give, give at once.

There are many who think Judge Redwine should have transferred the Jett and White assassination cases to a place reached by railroads and telegraph lines.

Now that we have plenty of rain the farmers should take new counage, work from daylight to dark, six days in the week, and all will come out right with good crops, notwithstanding the discouraging conditions earlier in the season.

The State Commercial Convention at Louisville this week was largely attended, nearly all the counties being represented. Judge S. S. Savage, of Ashland, was chosen to preside over the body, and performed the duties to perfection, of course. There is not a more enthusiastic or enterprising member of the body in the State. Much good will doubtless result from the efforts of this organization, which is putting in good strokes for the development of Kentucky.

Since the fact has been published that so many counties have not contributed to the movement for Kentucky's representation at the World's Fair in St. Louis next year and only three have even closely approached their appointments, citizens of those counties formerly in the inactive list have taken hold with a determination to lift their counties to the level of other counties with no more to show at the exposition but with more enterprise in agreeing to help bear the burden which has fallen on the commercial life of the State since the Legislature failed to make an appropriation.

Ayer's

Why is it that Ayer's Hair Vigor does so many remarkable things? Because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair, puts new life into it. The hair cannot keep from growing.

And gradually all the dark, rich color of early life comes back to gray hair.

When a first head Ayer's Hair Vigor is used, the hair will grow again.

GEORGES CREEK.

We have organized our Sunday School with L. C. Compton as Supt. and James Boyd Secretary. It is a union Sunday School, and we invite everybody to help us, and we hope and trust they will.
We have a good Supt. and feel it our duty to stand by him. James Pitch is wearing bright smiles. It's a boy. Anderson Boyd visited friends here last week and returned home Monday. Milton Allen and Rev. R. DeFord passed here Sunday. E. D. Boyd passed down our creek one day last week.
Crosbie work is all the go.
J. F. Davis and wife, of Louisville, are spending a few days with friends and relatives here. Mrs. Louisa Boyd is on the sick list. Amos and Rob Williams attended church

BUSSEVILLE.

The much needed rain has at last come to the great relief of the farmers, who were very anxious lest the drought should injure their crops. Laura Belle Miller is on the sick list. Memorial Day was observed in our neighborhood as well as the adjoining ones.
G. B. Carter and wife, and Sue Holt attended the Hutchinson graveyard with many friends Saturday. Master Henry Miller has come to this place to make his future home with his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Webb. Mrs. L. W.
Thompson is very ill at this writing.
Carl Bussey lost a very valuable horse in the last race. Grant Roberts and wife started to-day for the State of Washington to make their future home.
Children's Services will be held here Sunday night. There will be preaching here Saturday night and Sunday morning by Rev. Cheap. Luther Pigg is having his dwelling repaired.
There will be a festival here Saturday night, June 13. Every body invited.

CHARLEY.

The grim messenger, death, visited the home of John Waldon, taking his twelve months old son from this dreary world of ours to the realms of glory.
We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved parents. But cheer up dear father and mother your little one is not lost, but gone before to that happy home to await your coming. Borders Mead has returned from Va. Va. Bolt, Spencer, of Philadelphia, Pa., is visiting friends and relatives here. Mrs. Maggie Swim, of Buffalo, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Judd. Jas Judd has gone to Buffalo to work.
Bernard Spencer made a flying visit to Louisville Monday. The young folks of our town are preparing to entertain us on Children's Day. We wish them a successful and happy day. Mrs. Wm.
Moore is improving slowly. Ties are all the go here now. Not neckties but cross ties. We can brook a new mill here, run by the Benvis Bros. X. Well, as this is my first attempt of punishing the Editor I will quit lest I "quer" myself and have to take a back seat.

YESSIE.

Farmers are busy killing weeds. V.
B. Shortridge was at Ashland last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Queen were at Ashland last week. Mr. and Mrs.
Allen Smith, of Cannonsburg, visited relatives here last week. C. T. Miller was down the river last week on business. T. Riffe, our saw mill man, is doing a nice business at present on Robt. Toller's land. Dule Adkins had a hard tussle with John Barleycorn last Saturday and was downed in the first round. The young people had a pie mite at Baker Saturday evening for the benefit of their pastor.
They report a nice time. Messrs.
Bob Shortridge, Jess Watson, Baz Jordan, K. Miller and Walter Sexton attended the pie mite mite Saturday at Baker. Prof. J. H. Ekers, of Fallsburg was here recently. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cunningham were at Ashland and central city last week.
Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Shortridge were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Neal Sunday. Mrs. Emory McKinnis, who was reported sick some time ago, has dropped and it is thought that there is no chance of her recovery. Mrs. Wm.
Howell is very sick at this writing and has been for several days. Dr. T. C.
Burton, of Denton, is waiting on her.
The people here long to see those county mules and the road machine.
Our roads are in a very bad condition, and under the present system we don't expect very much. Kent.

RED HUSH.

There was a meeting at this place last Sunday. A large crowd present.
Preaching by Dr. Skaggs and others.
E. E. Williams, our neighbor and friend, departed his early life May 3d, 1903, and was buried at his home by the Masons. We extend our sympathy to family and relatives. The death angel visited the home of James L. Franklin and took from it a darling son, June 1, 1903. H. C. Franklin, of this place, has gone to accept a position under Mayo to go on a surveying corps.
The I. O. O. F. lodge is on a boom at this place. Nearly all of the farmers of this place are done planting corn.
We are having lots of sickness in our neighborhood. Four deaths in the last week. A. E. Dixon, one of our road diggers, passed through here this morning hunting for work. Some of our boys have quit the railroad and returned home after a week's stay. P. T. H.

CLINE.

The rain which has fallen here for the last few days promises much good for crops in this locality. We are informed that a vast quantity of liquor is being illegally disposed of in this locality. It does seem to us that the officials of this and our sister county should do something for the suppression of this kind of business, and permit the law-abiding citizens of the community to attend divine worship and other duties of life without molestation by "rust-heads." We petition our county officials to make here the strong arm of the law in the prosecution of these offenders.
Misses Gladys and Leona Cline entertained Sunday, and a delightful time is reported. Miss Virginia Cline visited at Mouth Buffalo Sunday. Among the number from this place who attended the Decoration Day exercises at Mouth Dickies Creek Saturday were noted: Granville Frazer, John Frazer, Jim Harless, Garfield Foley, Zella Collinsworth, Mrs.
Blackburn and Mrs. Rebecca Simpson, and daughter. Henry L. Porter, Jr., of Dwell, Ky., who has been traveling in the North-west and Canada for the last year, is visiting here. C. C.
Cline is attending Circuit Court at Inez this week. Born to J. D. Frazer and wife, a ten pound boy. Mrs. Ida Frazer visited her sister, Mrs. Louisa Corney Sunday. Long live the news!
Sylvester.

INEZ.

This is Court week. The Judge did not make his appearance and A. Copley was appointed to fill his place. There is a large number of people here as some very new cases are to be tried.
"Cris" Newberry returned from Cal-lettsburg Monday. Lewis Damp-sey and wife returned from Barlow-ville, W. Va. Saturday. B. P. Casiday and wife, of Louisville, are visiting friends in this town. Mrs. S. W. Newberry and Miss Nora Copley are visiting at Williamson. Albert Kirk returned recently from Indian Territory. Miss Hattie Polky returned from Thacker, W. Va. Saturday. John L. Kirk has recently employed a colored man to work which is the only one in town.
Prof. Talbert spent Sunday with his home folks at Paintsville. Frank Wright went to Ashland Tuesday.
Two miners men by the name of Mc-Daniels and Morris have been stopping in town for a few days. R. L. Hale will make a trip to Milton soon. The line engine will probably help him.
The following are the names of the jurors: Grand Jurors—Geo. Booth, Bong Cassell, G. W. Jewell, Elias Blackburn, J. W. Hale, Thomas Pack, John Stacy, Harvey Newsam, Jas. Hobbs, Jordan Moore, A. H. McCoy, G. E. Epp, Pettit Jurors—Thomas Chaffin, John Moore, J. Hale, Anderson Lowe, Jerry Mills, Jet Fields, Frank Brumfield, J.
G. Peirce, Lewis Maynard, J. P. Preston, Ed Goble, J. B. Jude, Thomas Marcum, Wm. Delong, J. W. Hobbs, Mat Ward, Thos. Dalton, O. G. Johnson, Jack Fitzpatrick, Tan Ward, Allen Cassell, a Ward and Jarrell Lowe.

PIKEVILLE.

Pike seems to be attempting to get ahead of Breathitt in the record of killing. A few days since, one Frank Es-top, of Peter creek, was shot from ambush. Yesterday on Island creek a few miles above Pikeville, Grant Sward shot and dangerously wounded Arthur West.
It is doubtful whether West recovers.
The difficulty, we are informed, came up over a girl who had been the "sweetheart" of Sward. One of our Deputy Sheriffs, K. E. Keathly, yesterday, on Robinson creek, shot and killed one Mr.
Ray, who was trying to make Keathly release a prisoner whom Keathly had under arrest. Keathly, we are told, had arrested McKinnis against whom he had two "bench warrants." He took his prisoner by a house where several men were assembled. Some of the men were drinking and teased Keathly about his prisoner but allowed him to pass on.
Keathly had gone but a short distance when he heard horse hoofs clattering behind him. The horseman rode round about of Keathly and confronting him demanded the release of the prisoner.
Keathly says the demand was accompanied by a fearful threat and an attempt to draw a weapon, whereupon, Keathly being too quick for him, shot him dead. Keathly came here this morning and put himself in the hands of the officials. His examining trial is set for June 8th. It is thought by most people here that Keathly will come clear. Sun Varnes, of Island creek, was bound in the sum of $200 to keep the peace by Judge Ratcliff on a peace warrant sworn out by Vanover's brother, who lives near him. We believe that if a few more of our young men who enjoy getting drunk, carrying and brandishing pistols were put under peace bonds or confined in jail, we would considerably reduce the record of crime.

The great majority of our citizens are grieved that a few wild, rude, young men who have lost all respect for self, home, and country, are by their misdeeds, giving our whole county a bad name. Our county officers are using every effort to bring all offenders to justice. We trust the people will assist the officers in their work.
Allen Quartermain.

TRAM.

*Two more weeks of dry weather would have cut the corn crop short more than one half in this vicinity. Since writing last two of our young people have been joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. James Atkinson and Miss Patricia Salmons were the contracting parties, and their many friends wish them much joy on their journey through life. The new residence of Henry Seiser is nearing completion. Ben Amberg and Geo. Hopkins are farming heavily. Col.
John W. McCue and John Caldwell with J. D. Ballard & Co., railroad contractors of Lanesville, were here Monday on business.
Mr. Ballard is preparing to begin operations opposite this point.
Frank Blackburn went to Cow Creek Sunday on important business. James Clifton visited Buffalo and tributaries Saturday and Sunday. Pedro.

DAVELLA.

The farmers are having fine weather to finish putting in their crops. Several people are attending court at Inez. F. F. Riffe has the best crop that has been on the Stepp farm for years. Alexander Delong and family are preparing to move to West Virginia. G. W. McGuire and wife attended church at Trace fork Sunday.
David Delong, the Squire, is among us talking good roads.

Notice of Commissioner's Sitting.

J. F. Ratcliff, Executor of Plaintiff, against
J. H. Preston & Co., Defendant.
Pursuant to an order of the Lawrence Circuit Court at its January term, 1903, referring this cause to the Court's Master Commissioner, the undersigned will on Tuesday, the 3rd day of June, 1903, at the office of F. L. Stewart on Main street in Louisville, Kentucky, begin his sittings in said cause, and as directed by said order will hear any and all proof that may be offered in the above styled cause bearing on the following subjects, so as to enable me to ascertain and report to the Court the following facts:
1. That assets, property and estate of every nature was left by L. M. Adkins at the time of death, where said property was and is situated, its value, and what liens if any, there were on said property, and description of all real estate left by said Adkins, the title to same, and as to how much of said property came to the executor of said Adkins in this State, and what amount of property came to the hands of said executor under his qualifications in the State of West Virginia, and what amount has been realized by the executor in either state or elsewhere.
2. At said time and place proof will be heard as to the amount of the indebtedness of said L. M. Adkins, whether secured or unsecured, and what claims are any and all persons, and what amounts have been paid thereon, also as to the probable costs of administration of said estate. Also as to what claims have been presented and allowed in West Virginia.
All creditors of L. M. Adkins are notified and required to present their claims, properly proven, before me at said time and place, and to pay further proof that may properly be presented in the settlement of said estate will be heard and acted upon.
My sittings will be continued from time to time until completed.
The 2nd day of June, 1903.

OBITUARY.

Death visited the home of H. B. Hewlett again and took from them their young son, Elbert. He died May 29, 1903.
His death was not expected so soon.
Everything in their power was done to save his life, but alas, it was God's will to take him away, and he passed into that blessed land where the Angels stand, weep not, dear parents, for Elbert, and trust in the Lord that you may meet your darling in heaven where no parting will ever be. How comforting are those words of St. Paul, "Our light afflictions, which are but for a moment, shall work for us far more exceeding and eternal weight in glory." Weep not, that his race is run, God grant that we may rest as calmly.
When our work like his is done, Till then we yield with gladness, Our Father to him to keep,
And rejoice in the sweet assurance,
He giveth his beloved sleep.

Mrs. Belle Linville, step-daughter Lawrence county, was married in Ashland Wednesday to S. P. Hall, a wealthy cotton planter of Sander-ville, Ga. The marriage is the result of a correspondence that start-evidence that advertising pays. The couple had never seen each other until the day before the wedding.

Dr. P. M. Randall Dead.

Dr. Percival M. Randall was born in Louisville, Ky., 50 years ago and died at his home in this village Tuesday, May 19th, at 6:30 o'clock.
He came to Wisconsin with his mother shortly after the Civil War and settled at Viroqua, where he resided for several years, going from there to Sugar Grove where he lived until about three years ago, when he came to La Farge.

He was a man of high moral character, a member of the Church of Christ, a steadfast friend, a loving father and a dutiful husband.
Dr. Randall will be sadly missed by a wide circle of acquaintances as his many acts of kindness had won for him a host of friends.

He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife, three sons, Randolph of Sugar Grove, James and Sam of this place, and five daughters, Mrs.
Frank Drake of Vermillion, S. D., Mrs. Jasper Newton of Sugar Grove, Mrs. Beattie Buraker of Soldier's Grove, Mrs. L. C. McCarty of Prairie du Chien and Miss Dolly of La Farge.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, May 21, in the M.
E. Church, conducted by Rev. Deniston, and despite the day being rainy and disagreeable the largest crowd ever assembled in the church was present to pay their last respects to the departed. The remains were laid to rest in the Chapel Hill Cemetery.

The above is taken from the La Farge (Wis.) Enterprise and refers to the only brother of the late Mrs.
R. F. Vinson. Dr. Randall had many friends here who regret to hear of his death.

HULETTE.

Mattie Burton, who has been sick, is no better. Mrs. Amos Robbitt, of Cannonsburg, visited here last week. Tolbert Bostick attended church at Seed Tick Sunday.
Oma O'Daniel and Sackie Queen visited Fannie and Minnie Burton Saturday and Sunday. Abraham Wooten and Dave Wells of Whites Creek visited John Wooten Sunday.
Misses Susie and Mary Nantley attended Sunday School at Horseford Sunday.
We are glad to say that John Wooten is still improving. S. G.
Queen and wife visited friends in W. Va. last week. Thos. O'Daniel and Lewis Nantley made a business trip to Catlettsburg last week.
Wm. O'Daniel and daughter, Lucy, made a flying trip to Yatesville last week.

John Burns left last week for Pittsburg, where he expects to remain this summer. W. M. Nantley, who has been working on the gas pipe, visited home folks Saturday and Sunday. George Adkins of Yates-ville, was here Sunday. Mrs.
S. G. Queen and Sarah Nantley visited.
O. M. Frasier Saturday. Miss Maggie Bostick and Carrie Frasier, of Kinniers, visited Lizzie Vanhorn last week. Quittie crowd attended the decoration at Long Branch Sunday.
We are sorry to hear of Tom Workman being knocked in the head by Abraham Wooten, called on Miss Ella O'Daniel Sunday. Jim Frazier, of Layne branch, was here Sunday. Sarah Chaffin was here Sunday. The school was held at home Sunday for a few weeks visit.
Theodore Riffe was here last week on business. Church here next Sunday by Rev. Blevins. Succeed to the News. June Bug.

BUSSEVILLE.

The Sunday School at this place will observe Children's Day next Sunday, and the exercises will be held at night. A splendid program has been arranged, and an excellent evening is promised. D. C.
O'Neal will deliver the annual address. During the whole entertainment tributes of respect will be paid to the immortal Wesley.
All are invited. Grand Roberts, one of our highly respected citizens left this week with his family for the broad valleys, high mountains and wooded hills of the faraway Washington. He carries away with him the best wishes of this entire country for his success as he is a splendid citizen and has an excellent wife. Prof.
T. J. Dalton, of Lowmansville, on Georges Creek, has organized a school in vocal music at the forks of Little Blaine, and his first lesson will be given Sunday afternoon.
That the school will be a success is clearly understood being so well supported. Joe K. Bussey returned last Tuesday from the A. & M. College at Lexington. His duties as a student ceased for the year with the breaking up of the 10th annual encampment. His brother, Henry, is expected home Friday. The recent rains have so softened our country that we hardly feel like the same people. The grass, the corn and all vegetables are in fine order.
Decorations Day was duly observed by most of our citizens, who visited the silent dead and paid tribute to their respective dead, renewing of course former resolutions.
Mrs. L. W. Thompson and Miss Genie Picklesimer are on the sick list. O'Brien, Carey & Co., of Louisville, were here the other day with their usual familiar smiles.
They are always gladly welcomed and are quite pleasant guests.

Thacker. He was employed on the grade, and was engaged in digging round a stump on the side of a cut.
Going down into the cut to dig under it, the stump became loosened in some way and fell on him, breaking his neck.

H. A. Jackson has purchased of Louis Pritchard, cashier of the First National Bank, of Ceredo, the farm known as the S. S. Vinson place one mile above Ceredo. The farm consists of about 185 acres, with splendid house and good improvements.

The price paid is said to be $9,000 cash and Mr. Jackson will take possession and move to it the first of November. The purchase includes the land at the mouth of Twelve Pole formerly known as the Bartram bottom.—Catlettsburg Press.

At six o'clock Saturday evening just above Hampton City, John Reh, of Kenova, was drowned while fishing. He was in company with four others, was sitting in the Big Sandy when he was taken with cramp and before help could reach him he had sunk beneath the waters of the river. Mr. Reh was the proprietor of a pump factory at
